Individualization

- Under what conditions do your employees perform best?
- What are key concerns about workflow and the work from home environment?
- What needs do you staff have?
- Create an individualize approach that allows each person to thrive in this new and currently uncertain environment.

Do you know how to communicate with each staff member to increase productivity?

Communication

- Ensure that staff still feel they have the resources, information and relationships to do their jobs well.
- Socialization is key to great working relationships, ensure that you build personal check-ins into each day.
- Depending on the behavioral needs of each employee, an individualized plan will increase work productivity.
- Transparency in communication.
 - We are needing to deliver tough messages from safer at home orders to layoffs.
 - Ensure your staff feel included and safe to perform at their best.

Measures Behavioral Drives

Do you know each person's individual strengths and how they align with the team's work styles?

Team's Work Style

- Understanding what the team as a whole needs to stay productive in times of uncertainty will be key to thriving.
- What technology can you use that will support the team as a whole?
 - Zoom
 - Phone
 - Stand up meetings
 - Chat System
 - Project Management Software
- Recognize great work as a team.

How do you keep employees engaged virtually in a time of uncertainty?

Employee Engagement

- Monitor Job Satisfaction
- Continue project teams remotely utilizing each employee's strengths and connectedness with the team as a whole.
- Gain input from team members.
- Build trust.
- Boost Morale.
- Frequent and transparent communication.
- Be consistent with company and team values.
- Keep going.

Engagement

How does your staff know what is expected of them?

Accountability

- Defined:
 - How much
 - Of what
 - By when
- Have you aligned the expectations in this new normal with the mission, tools to be successful and clear communication?
- Weekly Hour One & Hour Done

What will you do to take action?

1. Schedule daily huddles
2. Complete a BA on two staff members
3. Individualize your management based on employees needs.

A chalkboard with motivational phrases written on it. The phrases are "DREAM BIG", "SET GOALS", and "TAKE ACTION". The chalkboard is part of a larger image showing a person's hand holding a piece of wood, possibly a handle, against a blurred background of a workshop or factory floor.
